INTRODUCTION

While we celebrate the 20th anniversary of our summer school, it has trained more than 2000 persons and is well known among employers considering it as an asset for job seekers. This 20th edition will focus on the new pact on migration to be presented in April by the European Commission. The objective is to give to the participants a global understanding of the immigration and asylum policies in the EU from a legal perspective. The summer school is organised by the Odysseus Network for Legal Studies on Immigration and Asylum in Europe, founded in 1999 with the support of the European Commission. In addition to classes, the summer school provides an excellent opportunity to spend an intellectually stimulating time in a group of around one hundred participants specialised in the area of asylum and immigration from all over Europe. The location of the summer school in Brussels creates a unique environment facilitating participants' interaction with European institutions. Participants in the summer school typically includes PhD and graduate students, researchers, EU and Member State officials, representatives from NGOs and International Organisations, lawyers, judges, social workers, etc. The classes are taught by academics originating from all EU Member States collaborating in the framework of the Odysseus Network, and by high- ranking officials from the European Institutions, particularly the European Commission. You can discover the Summer School through this video: odysseus-network.eu/2020-summer-school

LANGUAGES

Courses are in principle taught separately in English and in French in order to allow participants to choose between those two languages with the exception of some courses given by guest speakers which will be exclusively in English. The Odysseus Network may ask Francophones having chosen the English group to move to the French-speaking group in order to balance the number of participants between both groups.

TEACHING APPROACH

The classes have a legal focus, combining theoretical and practical elements. They tackle the most recent political, legislative, and jurisprudential development of the EU and favor discussion, in particular with evening-debates. The last projects of the European institutions (Commission, Council, Parliament) will be analysed in the classes thanks to European officials as guest speakers. Each participant will have access to a complete and up-to-date documentation through an electronic platform.

LECTURERS

The lecturers at the Summer School include many members of the Odysseus Network as well as other experts in European immigration and asylum law. The program alternates between experienced professors with established reputations and younger colleagues who specialize in a particular field, in order to ensure that all courses, even the most technical, are taught by an expert of the area. The diversity of the speakers who come from all parts of the European Union allows the expression of views from different Member States. There are also several speakers from the European institutions (in particular the European Commission's DG Home, Affairs and Migration) and international organisations (UNHCR), in order to give a practical insight.

REFUGEE SCHOLARSHIPS and #REFYOUGEES CAMPAIGN

The objective of the project is to offer to a group of student-refugees to take part to the summer school to gain knowledge in European immigration and asylum law and to complete their education, which may have been interrupted by their forced departure from their home countries. A number of individuals working in NGOs already benefited from it. The initiative RefYOUgees organized with the support of the Université libre de Bruxelles is based on crowdfunding. Help us with a small or big donation via gogetfunding.com/scholarship-for-refugees-2020/ and following us on Twitter #refYOUgees

The first general part of the program includes 14 hours of lectures and the second and third specialised parts on immigration and asylum 30 hours in total. Each day is generally done of 2 classes of 2 hours, presented with a coffee-break in between. Visits to the European Parliament, the Commission and the Council of Ministers will be organized by the Odysseus Network. Participants may also take an opportunity to spend an evening in the heart of the European quarter at Place du Luxembourg, where people working at the EU institutions famously go for an after-work drink.
